

It is stated that five hundred millions of dollars are spent annually in the United States for such articles of dress as are subject to the fluctuations of fashion. Of this sum it is computed that sixteen millions are spent for hats, probably about twenty millions for caps and bonnets, and for other articles of dress, not less than four hundred millions!

The New York Herald says that there are advices from Washington, according to which, in the view of the Administration, the recent treaty for the annexation of Texas, rejected by the Senate—the treaty of commerce with the Zoll-Verrein, also rejected by the Senate, are considered to have been approved by the decision of the people in this election, and they will be renewed at the next session of Congress, and placed before the Senate in some shape or other.

A HEROINE.—Although in the late political contest, many a poor man in this country was forced to succumb to his "Democratic" taskmaster, yet there were some noble exceptions—one of which we shall relate. A poor man, who has been a Whig for years, in the township of Sandyston, was threatened by his landlord with a summary ejectment from the premises in his occupancy, unless he voted for Polk and Dallas. He hesitated upon receiving this edict, but his wife, with that courage and fortitude which ever animates the breast of a true woman, determined that her husband should spurn the dictation of the petty tyrant. She accompanied him to the polls herself, and did not rest satisfied till he had deposited his ballot for Clay and Frelinghuysen. The gallant Whigs of Sandyston rightly appreciated the conduct of this noble-spirited woman, and presented her with a new dress, as a testimonial of their admiration. That humble couple will not be permitted to suffer. Let their oppressor look to himself.—Sussex (N. J.) Register.

A REVOLT.—A correspondent of the New York Sun, writing from Constantinople, says: "Couriers have been arriving here from Albania, bringing the most alarming intelligence.—The Province has again revolted, and so great are the resources of the insurgents, that more serious disturbances than those of last spring are looked for with painful anxiety. The Sultan's Cabinet are in session, and considerable stir is manifested in the War department."

LATER FROM BRAZIL.—The schr. Erie, from Para, brings intelligence to 18th October. Capt. Mathews states that the elections for the National Assembly had recently occurred through the Empire. The contest was a very close and energetic one, between the Imperialists and the opposition party. It was reported in Para, that there had been some serious disturbances in Ceara, (a neighboring province.) In the course of the riots and fights, report says, that several were killed and wounded by shots fired by the government troops, and by the rioters.

THRILLING INCIDENT.—At a meeting of the friends of colonization in Louisville, on Wednesday evening, we were spectators to one of the most intensely thrilling incidents connected with the departure of a small band of emigrants, just brought to the city by a gentleman of Shelby county, by whom they were manumitted, and placed under the care of Rev. Mr. Phinny, an agent of the Colonization Society. Of the number, eleven were children of one man, who was present, and appeared to be verging to the age of three score years and ten. This patriarch was not of the number manumitted; he belonged to another estate, but had permission to accompany his wife and children to this city, and here bid them a final adieu. When this fact was announced, with an emotion that almost choked the utterance of the speaker, there was the long drawing in of the breath by every listener, which indicates the workings of the powers within. All eyes were directed toward the object of so much sympathy; and when it was further stated that the owner of the old man Reuben (for so he was called) would permit him to depart with his family for the small sum of a thousand pence, the response was with one voice, Reuben shall be free! On the instant the table of the moderator was thronged, and the sum laid upon it, to reunite for the remnant of their days old man Reuben and his wife, and they and their children are now on their way to the shore of Africa.—Louisville Courier.

ANOTHER TRAVELLER.—An Englishman for the first time visited one of the markets, pencil and paper in hand, to ascertain the different prices of articles, for his notes in America. Approaching a butcher's stall, he inquired the price of a very fine quarter of mutton. "Twenty-five cents," said the owner. "I asked you a civil question," said the Englishman. "I gave you a civil answer," said the butcher, "and I cannot afford to sell my mutton for less. It is a very fine article, you will observe, and we have a live 'profit'." "Well," said the stranger, "who could have thought it! I was not aware that such a thing could have been found in the world. In London such a piece of meat would have commanded five dollars!"—Cincinnati Commercial.

REMARKABLE PRESENTMENT.—In Doyleston, Pennsylvania, Beniah Holdren, an aged man of 94 years, after partaking a happy meal with his children, apparently in perfect health, observed: "Now, my friends, this is the last meal I shall ever eat; I am about to die." He then proceeded to give directions as to his worldly concerns, his burial, &c., and when he had concluded was struck down by a paralytic stroke.

WHAT EDUCATION DOES.—At an anniversary, I once heard a brother give an illustration of what education does for the Minister, which had both point and edge. "Education," said he, "is to the mind, what the grindstone is to the scythe. It neither improves the temper of the steel, nor adds to its amount; but some how or other, it makes it cut."

A PROTRACTED MEETING will be commenced in the Methodist Protestant Church, (9th street), to-morrow, (Sunday.) General class meeting at 3 o'clock, P. M. Preaching on Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings. The Rev. Levi R. Reese, President of the Maryland Annual Conference, will officiate. The public are respectfully invited. nov16

THE CONGREGATION of the Second Presbyterian Church, under the Pastoral charge of the Rev. W. W. Eells, have obtained as their place of public worship, the Lecture Room at the corner of E and 10th streets, formerly the Medical Hall. There will be divine service in that place to-morrow and on the Sabbath day, commencing at 11 o'clock in the morning and at 7 o'clock in the evening. Citizens are respectfully invited to attend. nov16

Lord Chesterfield says that a good appearance is at all times a letter of introduction. How can a man make a good appearance with a face covered with pimples, pustules, salt rheum, barbers' or Jackson's itch, and various other cutaneous diseases, that frequently disfigure the human form 'divine'? These and similar disorders have their origin in an impure or depraved state of the blood and general fluid of the system, and Spring is the time to perfectly eradicate them from the system, by the timely use of the right medicine. Sunda's Sarsaparilla, a purely vegetable preparation, which operates on the system strictly in conformity with Nature's laws, will entirely remove all impurities of the blood, the grand source of life and bodily vigor, and the patient will speedily feel its healthy and regenerating influence on the system, and by its use soon regain health; the skin is rendered clear, and the complexion much improved, as thousands can testify, by the use of this valuable medicine.
